

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS TESTS INFORMATION & GUIDANCE WORKSHOPS 2019

Marjon student or alumni? Considering a career in teaching? Applied for an undergraduate or post-graduate route into teaching at Plymouth Marjon University or elsewhere?

Did you know that you have to pass the professional skills tests in numeracy and literacy before you begin your teacher training? For more information on the professional skills tests:

<https://getintoteaching.education.gov.uk/how-to-apply/passing-the-skills-tests>

The key to successfully passing is plenty of preparation and practice and the good news is Marjon's Teaching Education Partnership can help!

 Book onto one, or more, of our workshops for hints, tips, support and guidance. ***

WORKSHOPS TAKE PLACE ON:

Wednesday 6 February 2019[#]

Literacy 1400-1500
Numeracy 1500-1600

Tuesday 26 February 2019

Literacy 1500-1630 (£15)
Numeracy 1630-1800 (£15)

Monday 13 May 2019

Numeracy 1500-1630 (£15)
Literacy 1630-1800 (£15)

 Intensive one-day workshops ***

Thursday 6 June 2019

Numeracy 1000-1500 (£40)

Friday 7 June 2019

Literacy 1000-1500 (£40)

All workshops take place in room W305 on the Plymouth Marjon University campus, Derriford Road, Plymouth, PL6 8BH.

Pay and Display parking available if needed.

HOW DO I BOOK MY PLACE?

All workshops are FREE for current Marjon students, Marjon alumni and applicants to Marjon BEd, PGCE or School Direct Programmes. If you have a Marjon username and password log-in to the Futures online events page or use the QR code to reserve your place.

If you have applied for a Marjon course and don't have a log-in, or you are not eligible for a FREE workshop but would still like to attend please follow this link and select the workshop(s) you would like to attend, selecting the paid workshop option. Please note the sessions on the 6 February 2019 will not be available to you.

NB: Places are limited and will be allocated on a first come basis.

These workshops are not available to individuals who have not applied for a course at Plymouth Marjon University, or who are not currently a Marjon student or alumni.